

Dear Center Members,

The Nominating Committee of the DC Center of Self Realization Fellowship is seeking volunteers to serve at the Center. Both elected and non-elected positions are available.

Why Volunteer?

- "Thank you a million times for doing your part and helping me carry on this work." Paramahansa Yoganandaji
- "Our Master, Paramahansa Yogananda was so appreciative of every service that was done for him." Sri Daya Mata
- "The disciples that advance on this path are those who serve this work." Brother Mokshananda

Positions:

The elected positions are as follows –
Election is by a secret ballot and will be held at a Business Meeting on April 25, 2010. Those volunteering for elected positions are automatically included in the ballots. Nominations can also be taken from the floor during the election.

Coordinator
Secretary
Treasurer
Member at Large
Service Reader
Sunday School Teacher
Sunday School Aide (Need not be a Kriyaban, see qualifications below.)

The unelected positions are as follows –
For most positions, a schedule will be drawn up. One may serve as often as one likes.

Usher
Greeter
Harmonium Player
Book-room Staff
Chapel Cleaning
Flower Committee
Social Committee

Qualifications:

To qualify for an elected position,

1. One must be a Kriyaban,
2. Have attended Center functions frequently in the past six months and

3. Per the Mother Center guidelines, should not be living with an unmarried member of the opposite sex.

Elected positions are contingent upon approval by the Mother Center. Approval is usually obtained after June. Service would begin in September.

To qualify for an unelected position, it is preferred that one be a lesson student who has attended services for at least 3 months. Volunteers are approved by the Managing Council.
